For those of you who have stuck with this and are actually reading this, I commend you. :) Well we are going to put this ugly season behind us in a few short hours. It really is weird knowing the season will end on the last day weekend of the regular season.

So what do we look for in the game tonight? Well it's a win-win. If the Riders win, well it's a win and we seriously screw Edmnonton's shot at a home playoff game and ruin first place. If we lose, hello first pick overall! Although then we can worry all off-season the the team will pick the CFL's answer to Alexandre Daigle, although you could argue Tyson St. James has just as much inmpact in the CFL as Dagile did in the NFL, but I digress.

What to look for tonight? Well I watched the first half of the Hamilton game again and was impressed by Pat Neufeld and Alex Krasunick-Groh. Neufeld will get a good test tonight against those two DE's in Edmonton. I look forward to watching Brandon West run th ball again. I love that we have a guy with the last name Fudge on the team. Remember this? http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DfubZlBZV0s
. If this guy makes it next year I will yell that every time he makes a play.

I've gotten enjoyment watching kids like Butler and Milo all year as well. Lastly, I may be jumping the gun on this and will have egg on my face if I am wrong, but just in case, Congrats Gene Makowsky and Jason Clermont on fantastic careers with in the CFL. Thanks also to Ken Miller for your work with the team over the years. I hope we can send you off in style tonight. Bye everyone. See you around for those who follow the Riders all year long. For those who will take a break in the off-season see you next year.
